MPLP Alumni Headed to House and Senate

As of returns Nov. 5, 2014

Winning state Senate seats

Rep. Margaret O’Brien, of Portage, (MPLP Class of 2000), (R-61st District), winning 20th District state Senate seat.
Rep. Peter MacGregor, of Cannon Township, (MPLP Class of 2004), (R-73rd District), winning 28th District state Senate seat.
Kenneth Horn, of Frankenmuth, (MPLP Class of 1993), (R), winning 32nd District state Senate seat.
Rep. Wayne Schmidt, of Traverse City, (MPLP Class of 2007), (R-104th state House District), winning 37th District state Senate seat.

Winning new state House seats

Jeremy Moss, of Southfield, (MPLP Class of 2013), (D), winning 35th District state House seat.
Michael Webber, of Rochester Hills, (MPLP Class of 2006), (R), winning 45th District state House seat.

MPLP Incumbents Winning State House Re-election

Rep. Harvey Santana, of Detroit, (MPLP Class of 2002), (D-9th House District)
Rep. Tim Greimel, of Auburn Hills, (MPLP Class of 2005), (D-29th House District)
Rep. Sam Singh, of East Lansing, (MPLP Class of 1997), (D-69th House District)
Rep. Michael Callton, of Nashville, (MPLP Class of 2009), (R–87th House District)
Rep. Amanda Price, of Park Township, (MPLP Class of 1993), (R-89th House District)

MPLP Alumni Serving Last Term in 2014 (not eligible to run again under term limits)

Rep. Gail Haines, of Lake Angelus, (MPLP Class of 2007) (R-43rd House District)
Rep. Kate Segal, of Battle Creek, (MPLP Class of 2002) (D-67th House District)

Click here to see a complete list of MPLP graduates serving in elective or appointed office.