FAST FACTS: THE MICHIGAN POLITICAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

★ The Michigan Political Leadership Program awards 24 annual fellowships each valued at $12,000 to train individuals in public policy analysis, personal leadership development, effective governance, and campaign management.

★ MPLP is the only multi-partisan leadership program in Michigan, and one of only a handful in the nation. To date, MPLP has trained an estimated 600 men and women since the program’s inception in 1992.

★ Alumni reports indicate that an estimated 45 percent of MPLP alumni are serving or have served in an appointed or elected capacity. Scores of MPLP graduates are serving or have served in scores of village, township, school board and statewide positions.

★ The program is administered by the Institute for Public Policy and Social Research in the College of Social Science at Michigan State University. The Institute is also known as IPPSR, and specializes in public policy, leadership training and survey research. MPLP is co-directed – by a Democrat and a Republican – with extensive experience, another sign of its bipartisan approach.
