

Institute for Public Policy
and Social Research
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

IPPSR PUBLIC POLICY FORUM SERIES SPRING 2022 – TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2022

TODAY'S LABOR MARKET AND THE "GREAT RESHUFFLE"

DR. STEPHEN WOODBURY, PROFESSOR, DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS, MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Steve Woodbury is a professor of economics at Michigan State University and a senior economist at the W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research. He researches issues in unemployment, unemployment insurance, and nonwage compensation. His areas of expertise include unemployment and unemployment insurance, worker dislocation, reemployment programs, non-wage benefits, pensions, and health insurance.

During 1993–1994, he was deputy director of the Advisory Council on Unemployment Compensation in the U.S. Department of Labor and during 2014–2015, he was a visiting professor in the economics department at Princeton University. His work has been published in journals such as the American Economic Review, Journal of Labor Economics, Health Economics, National Tax Journal, and Labour Economics.

CARRIE ROSINGANA, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, CAPITAL AREA MICHIGAN WORKS!

Carrie Rosingana is the Chief Executive Officer for Capital Area Michigan Works! that serves the tri-county Capital region of Clinton, Eaton, and Ingham Counties. She has worked in workforce development since 2007.

Rosingana started her career as a career coach and case manager within the Capital Area Michigan Works! system before becoming Capital Area Michigan Works! quality assurance officer, and then the chief compliance officer, and finally the chief operating officer and equal opportunity officer prior to her current role.

Rosingana serves on behalf of Capital Area Michigan Works! on numerous regional and statewide boards for organizations including the Lansing Economic Area Partnership, Capital Area Manufacturing Council, Lansing Community College Coalition for College and Career Readiness (C3R), the Michigan Energy Workforce Development Consortium and the Michigan Diversity Education Center.

TONY WILLIS, CHIEF EQUITY DEVELOPMENT OFFICER, LANSING ECONOMIC AREA PARTNERSHIP

As the Chief Equity Development Officer for LEAP, Tony Willis leads the organization in establishing and extending programs to support equitable economic development throughout the Lansing region. With the goal of creating a stronger, more competitive economy that works for all, Willis works to dismantle barriers and expand opportunities for low-income people, communities of color, and other underrepresented groups.

Willis is also the President of PROTO Accelerator, the region's first corporate innovation platform and the only accelerator in the state of Michigan with a program focused on InsurTech. He has worked in multiple capacities at LEAP starting as Business Acceleration Manager and VP of Entrepreneurship and Innovation, before being promoted to Chief Equity Development Officer. Prior to joining LEAP, Willis worked in commercial lending with an emphasis in startup/small business lending.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications with specialization in Public Relations from Michigan State University.

TONY LAMBERT, VICE PRESIDENT, CLIENT ENGINEERING, TECHSMITH CORPORATION

Tony Lambert is an experienced engineering executive with more than 20 years working in information technology. At TechSmith Corporation, Tony has prototyped, built, and led the creation and maintenance of many global products and services, including the flagship products Snagit and Camtasia.

Outside of the professional arena, Tony challenges himself with outdoor hobbies such as backpacking trips, mountain biking races and long distance running.