

Ms. Shelly Edgerton is the Director for the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs (LARA). Prior to joining LARA, Ms. Edgerton dedicated 27 years of service to the state legislature where she served most recently as Deputy Senate Majority Counsel in the Senate Majority Policy Office. She has previously held titles of Assistant Senate Majority Counsel and Chief of Staff for Senator Dave Honigman. Edgerton earned her bachelor's degree and a Master of Public Administration degree from Western Michigan University. She went on to receive her juris doctor at Thomas M. Cooley Law School.

Dr. Debra Furr-Holden is the C.S. Mott Endowed Professor of Public Health in the newly-formed MSU College of Human Medicine Division of Public Health. Furr-Holden is examining solutions that will lead to reducing health disparities in Flint, the state and beyond. She is responsible for starting the Flint Center for Health Equity Solutions (FCHES) which will bring together policy-makers, community leaders and researchers to better serve health needs of the Flint community. Furr-Holden is an epidemiologist with expertise in drug and alcohol dependence, prevention science and environmental strategies and structural intervention for violence, alcohol, tobacco and other drugs. Her work has focused on developing environmental strategies for violence and substance abuse prevention in high-risk and urban settings. She led the Centers for Disease Control's prevention grant "Alcohol Policies to Prevent and Reduce Youth Violence Exposure" and was Co-Director of the Johns Hopkins Center for Prevention of Youth Violence prior to returning to Flint, her hometown.

Dr. Jed Magen is an Associate Professor and Chair of Michigan State University's Department of Psychiatry. His interests is in child psychiatry, teaching, and the diagnosis and evaluation of adolescents with combined medical-psychiatric disorders and severe psychiatric disorders. Dr. Magen was a commissioned officer in the U.S. Public Health Service serving with the Indian Health Service. He completed a general psychiatry residency and a child and adolescent psychiatry fellowship at the University of Michigan, where he was chief resident in child and adolescent psychiatry and then departmental chief resident. He is board certified in general and child and adolescent psychiatry by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology and the American Osteopathic Board of Neurology and Psychiatry. He is a past president of the American Osteopathic College of Neurologists and Psychiatrists and of the Michigan Psychiatric Society. He was a member of the Executive Council of the American Association of Directors of Psychiatry Residency Training and is an appointed member of the Council of Academic Societies of the Association of American Medical Colleges.